

“Jewelry Design Made Modern” with Emily Roedl

Saturday,
August 20, 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.
$90.

Costume jewelry made its place in woman’s fashion for its use of different and inexpensive materials while incorporating good design principals. Make a place in your schedule for this fun and educational workshop! You will learn some basic design principals that will help you create your own wearable work of art. Not only will you be able to create a personal design, but this class will also teach the basic techniques for putting it all together. A variety of materials are included for your creations along with all necessary tools. The tools are yours to take home so you can make more jewelry!

Emily Roedl

Emily Roedl is a local jewelry designer living near Lake Mills, WI. She studied fine art at Kendall College of Art and Design and has been making jewelry for several years. Emily uses a variety of materials in her designs. Copper, glass, crystal, metal and reworked vintage beads and findings are just a few of the many materials incorporated into new and unique wearable art. She has sold her designs on her website as well as at local art shows. Her work will be featured at the Lake Mills Art Festival July 16th.
